

This case study is about GravityLight that produces light from gravity and can be used repeatedly without the requiring sunshine or batteries and no running costs. GravityLight won two awards at the D&AD Awards ceremony in 2014 which were: D&AD black pencil along with D&AD white pencil in the product design category.

If you would like to find out more please follow this link:

<https://deciwatt.global/gravitylight>